Silca Point

SILCA MAGAZINE

With Silca Point, setting up your point of sale is fun. It certainly adds more value to your key cutting service.

DESIGN

Functionality above all, and ergonomics to make your work more rational, faster and more profitable. The concept is of fittings that go together to make up a work station and storage unit, functional but also attractive to the eye.

MODULARITY

Silca Point gives you infinite possibilities to create linear or corner arrangements. You can start in a small way and then think big as time goes by, or adapt to the changes in your key cutting needs. With Silca Point endless combinations of fittings can be developed.

RELIABILITY

Built to last and adapt to the transformation of points of sale. Durability is guaranteed by the top quality of the materials used for the structure and each individual component.
